The Conference Board of Canada Insights You Can Count On

EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS 2000+

The skills you need to enter, stay in, and progress in the world of work—whether you work on your own or as part of a team Employability Skills 2000+ are the employability skills, attitudes, and behaviours you need to participate and progress in today's dynamic world of work.

The Conference Board invites and encourages students, teachers, parents, employers, labour, community leaders, and governments to use Employability Skills 2000+ as a framework for dialogue and action. Understanding and applying these skills will help you enter, stay in, and progress in the world of work.

Apply Your Employability Skills at Work

Employability Skills 2000+ are the critical skills you need in the workplace—whether you are self-employed or working for others. Employability Skills 2000+ include communication, problem solving, positive attitudes and behaviours, adaptability, working with others, and science, technology and mathematics skills.

Apply Your Employability Skills Elsewhere in Your Life

Employability Skills 2000+ can also be applied beyond the workplace in your daily and personal activities.

Develop Your Employability Skills

You can develop your Employability Skills 2000+ at home, at school, at work, and in the community. Family, friends, teachers, neighbours, employers, co-workers, government, business, and industry can all play a part in helping you build these skills.

LOOKING FOR WAYS TO IMPROVE YOUR OWN EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS?

The Employability Skills Toolkit for the Self-Managing Learner Can Help You! The Employability Skills Toolkit is a suite of practical tools designed to help you:

- know yourself and get feedback;
- identify and reflect on your skills;
- plan skills development activities;
- implement your development plans and practise your skills; and
- document and market your skills for best success.

For more information on the Toolkit or how to work with the Conference Board to produce a customized version of the Toolkit, visit the Conference Board's website.
